

至于我，我必仰望神，
把我的事情托付他。
(伯5:8)

A whole new world

I look down from the world, looking down from the clouds, but my precious ones whom did you turn to your heart decide.
I can't leave you alone, I'm here to be your friend, I'm here to be your friend, I'm here to be your friend.
A whole new world, a whole new world, a whole new world, a whole new world, a whole new world.
In the end of the world, in the end of the world, in the end of the world, in the end of the world, in the end of the world.
